(Los Angeles, CA)—Craft Contemporary is pleased to announce its 2023 Holiday Marketplace, a two-day event eagerly anticipated by art connoisseurs and gift seekers alike. Join us on Saturday, December 2nd and Sunday, December 3rd from 11:00AM to 5:00PM for a festive shopping experience as we usher in the holiday season.

This annual event is held in the museum's outdoor courtyard and features booths by 24 Los Angeles-based artists displaying an array of contemporary craft and design offerings. The artisanal treasures on display include ceramics, jewelry, vintage and contemporary textiles, craft supplies, homewares, and much more. Visitors will discover unique gifts that cater to a wide range of tastes, making this event a preeminent destination for holiday shopping. Additionally, the marketplace experience will be enhanced with live music, drinks, and engaging workshops, all of which serve to enrich the museum's mission and programming.

This year, our workshop offerings include the art of candle-making, the mastery of traditional Japanese furoshiki gift-wrapping techniques, and the creative endeavor of crafting DIY snowflake decorations. Please note that workshop participation requires reservations.

Visitors are encouraged to complement their Holiday Marketplace experience with a visit to Craft Contemporary's current exhibitions and the renowned Contemporary Museum Shop, culminating in a well-rounded and enjoyable holiday shopping adventure. For inquiries and workshop reservations, please contact Craft Contemporary at info@craftcontemporary.org. We look forward to welcoming you to our Holiday Marketplace, a celebration of craftsmanship and creativity.
